

Mission America
COALITION
Global Ministries
Task Force

REV. JOHN QUAM is the National Facilitator of Global Ministries for the Mission America Coalition (MAC). John brings extensive international and national experience including serving 10 years as a missionary to Brazil and then on the national staff of Advancing Churches in Missions Commitment. Most recently, he was the chair and CEO of Prayer Transformation Ministries. He has served either part-time or full-time on the MAC national facilitation team since 1993. John has a strong passion for the gospel and a great heart for unreached people groups around the world. Contact: johnq@missionamerica.org or 612.849.7888.

DICK BASHTA is the Executive Director of Adopt-a-People Clearinghouse, currently a ministry of the Bible League. He has spent 26 years serving as a missionary, missions pastor and mission agency director. Dick is passionate about helping churches and mission organizations invest their prayers, pocketbooks and personnel in starting church planting movements among unreached people groups.

MARV BOWERS is president of Information and Learning Systems Intl, a high-tech agency specializing in ministry information CD-ROM's and related web services and networks. ILS focuses on the information and learning needs of the poorest of the poor and the least-reached peoples of the world. Marv served with Mission Aviation Fellowship for 17 years. He is on the board of the Harvest Foundation and Artists in Christian Testimony and is web advisor for the Association of Evangelical Relief and Development Organizations.

DR. MONROE BREWER is Global Ministries Pastor at Crystal Evangelical Free Church in Minneapolis, MN. Monnie has served as a missions pastor for the last 30-plus years, has traveled to over 100 countries and has served on many Boards. He has extensive experience in teaching missions and is an adjunct professor at Trinity Evangelical Divinity School.

DR. PHILL BUTLER started his professional life as an international radio/television journalist. During the last 30 years he has worked in over 70 countries, first as head of Inter Cristo, then Interdev. Butler has written extensively in the field of communications and missions. He now heads visionSynergy a ministry focused on international ministry network development and is an internationally recognized expert in partnerships and strategic alliances.

CAROL DAVIS is co-founder and executive director of Global Spectrum. She pioneers, mobilizes, trains and mentors leaders. Her strategic insights come out of 40-plus years of ministry experience. Starting new initiatives is what keeps her on the “grow.”

MIKE FLINCHUM currently serves as the Director of the Unreached Peoples Program for the Baptist General Conference. He and his wife spent 15 years in Argentina in a church-planting ministry. Mike also serves as regional Coordinator for India, Thailand and the Philippines.

GREG FRITZ is the President of Caleb Project, an equipping, mobilizing ministry focused on unreached peoples. He has served in this role since 1982. Greg also ministers in a leadership role at Cherry Hills Community Church.

REV. DAVE GIBSON is Pastor of Missions and Outreach for Grace Church in Eden Prairie, MN. Dave oversees a missions budget of nearly 2 million dollars and also serves on the Board of Fellowship of Christian Athletes. Dave was seconded to the Mission America Coalition for two years to give leadership to the MAC team in the launching of the Lighthouse Movement.

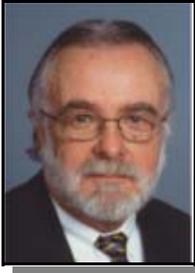

JIM KILLGORE serves as President and CEO of Advancing Churches in Missions Commitment (ACMC). Jim has served as Missions Pastor for two large mission-minded churches and was the pastor of the Protestant International Church in Islamabad, Pakistan for four years. During that time, the church quadrupled in attendance and over 100 Muslims came to faith.

STEVE MARR is the former CEO of the 4th largest import-export firm in the U.S. Currently Steve consults with companies in applying biblical principles to modern business practices. Steve is the author of Business Proverbs and edits an article for periodicals. In addition he is host of a daily radio feature that is heard on 1,000 radio stations.

PAUL MCKAUGHAN is the Executive Director of the Evangelical Fellowship of Mission Agencies, (EFMA). This organization associates approximately 100 agencies representing 18,000 North American missionaries. Paul served 13 years in the country of Brazil and has held many leadership roles in the area of world missions.

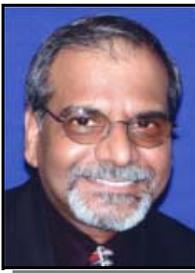

GREG PARSONS is the General Director of the U.S. Center for World Mission (USCWM), where he has been on staff for 20 years. Greg serves the USCWM through networking national and global mission agencies to advance God's Kingdom to every people group on earth.

U.S. Center for World Mission
A catalyst among God's people, for His glory in all peoples.

DAN SCRIBNER provides team leadership for Joshua Project, a ministry of All Nations International. Dan personally maintained the original Joshua Project database of the world's least-reached peoples since the inception of that list in 1995 under the AD2000 and Beyond Movement.

DR. DOUGLAS SHAW was born in India and considers himself the product of missionary efforts. He is currently President/CEO of International Students Inc. His career has encompassed service in both Corporate and Christian organizations, including being a consultant and senior pastor. Doug is pursuing a God-given goal to help in the completion of the Great Commission through reaching international students here in the United States and in their global leadership positions around the world.

TOM TELFORD is Vice President of Mobilization for United World Mission. Tom previously served as Northeast Regional Director for Advancing Churches in Missions Commitments and has spent many years challenging and equipping young people and local churches in the area of world missions.

Mission America Coalition Global Ministries Task Force
 Phone: 612.849.7888 * Email: globalministries@missionamerica.org
 Internet: www.missionamerica.org, www.shapingeternity.com